1. PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No.2 of 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on 09 March 2001 and gives effect to the Constitutional right of access to information held by public or private bodies required for the exercise or protection of any rights

Section 51 of PAIA read with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 ("POPIA") requires that we as a private body, compile a manual to inform the public of the procedure to follow when requesting information from us for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights and a disclosure of the information collected by us. We also include the grounds of refusal of any access requests in this manual as access to information is not an unlimited right and is subject to justifiable limitations such as the protection of personal information, commercial confidentiality and governance reasons.

This manual may be amended from time to time and any new versions will be made public.

ABOUT PAYJUSTNOW PAYJUSTNOW PROPRIETARY LIMITED ("PJN") IS A BUY-NOW-PAY-LATER ("BPNL") SERVICE PROVIDER IN SOUTH AFRICA. PJN IS PART OF WEAVER FINTECH, A DIGITAL, DATA-DRIVEN BUSINESS HEAD QUARTERED IN MAURITIUS OFFERING PERSONAL LENDING, PAYMENTS, INSURANCE AND VALUE-ADDED SERVICES.

PJN supports a culture of transparency and accountability in its environment and aims to ensure that members of the public have effective access to information in its possession which will assist them in the exercise and protection of their rights. These will however always be subject to the limitations in terms of the law.

This manual will provide information on the categories of information in our possession. We also explain the process to follow should you require access to any of this information.

A copy of the manual is available at our registered address and on our website https://payjustnow.com/

10. PROCESS FOR REQUESTING ACCESS TO INFORMATION

10.1. If you wish to request access to any categories of information referred to above, you are required to complete a request form which substantially corresponds with Form 2 to Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA regulations and should be specific in terms of the record requested. Please refer to https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/InfoRegSA-PAIA-Form02-Reg7.pdf to access the relevant form. Form 2 is attached hereto as ANNEX A.

Doc ID: 6[illegible]

10.2. All requests for access to information should be submitted or emailed to the Information Officer

10.3. A request for access to information which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to the requestor.

10.4. Proof of identity is required to authenticate the Data Subject's identity and request. The Data Subject will be required to submit acceptable proof of identity in addition to the prescribed form.

10.5. Payment of the prescribed fees in accordance with Annexure B of the PAIA Regulations (as amended from time to time):

10.5.1. The request fee: R140.00 (one hundred and forty Rand) (as at date of publication of this manual)

10.5.2. The access fee: This is calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs.

10.6. The Information Officer must, if a request for access to a record is granted or refused inform the requestor of his or her decision and the fees payable as provided for in Annexure B of the PAIA regulations on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 3 under the PAIA regulations. Please refer to https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/Form-3-PAIA.pdf to access the relevant form.

10.7. Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the information will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

10.8. Timelines for consideration of a request for access:

Doc ID: 6[illegible]

10.8.1. Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty days) unless relevant factors warrants an extension of the time limit

10.8.2. Should an extension be required the requestor will be notified, together with the reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

11. REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Upon receipt of a request for access to information, PJN will be required to consider such a request in light of the provisions of section 50 of PAIA. Subject to such consideration, PJN will be required to either grant such request or refuse such request. If PJN elect to refuse access to a particular record, such refusal will be subject to PJN's interpretation of the various prescribed grounds for refusal as set forth in Chapter 4 of the PAIA act and described below:

PJN must refuse a request for information on the following grounds:

11.1. The mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is natural person. An access request must be refused where the disclosure of personal information would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party (including a deceased person) (unless an exception exists as per section 63(2) of PAIA);

11.2. The mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party. An access request must be refused if the record contains –

11.2.1. trade secrets of that third party;

11.2.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; or

11.2.3. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to PJN, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition (unless an exception exists as per section 64(2) of PAIA);

Doc ID: 6426[illegible]

11.3. The mandatory protection of confidential information of a third party. Access requests must be refused where the information is protected in terms of any agreement;

11.4. The mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property. Access requests must be refused where disclosure could be expected to endanger the lives or physical safety of others;

11.5. The mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings. Access requests must be refused where the information is privileged, unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived the privilege;

11.6. The commercial information of PJN. An access request must be refused where the information may include –

11.6.1. trade secrets of PJN;

11.6.2. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of PJN;

11.6.3. information which, if disclosed could put PJN at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition; or

11.6.4. a computer program which is owned by PJN, and which is protected by copyright

(unless an exception exists as set out in section 68(2) of PAIA).

11.7. Mandatory protection of research information of a third party, and protection of research information of a private body. An access request must be refused where the research information of PJN or a third party if the disclosure of such information would disclose the identity of PJN, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

Any requests for information that are frivolous or vexatious or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

Doc ID: 6426[illegible]

12. REMEDIES FOR THE REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION

Internal remedy

12.1. The decision of the Information Officer of PJN is final. Where a person is aggrieved with the decision, such person will need to exercise their alternative remedies applicable in cases where a request for information has been denied and they are not satisfied with the reasons provided by the Information Officer.

External remedies

12.2. PAIA provides that where a request for information is refused and the person requesting the information is not satisfied with the reasons provided by the Information Officer, the requestor may apply to a court for relief within 180 (one hundred and eighty) days of being notified of the refusal.

12.3. Further, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator established in terms of POPIA regarding the outcome of any decision of PJN in respect of requests made in terms of this Manual. A complaint must be lodged in writing on a form which corresponds substantially with Form 5 under the PAIA regulations. Please refer to https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/InfoRegSA-PAIA-Form05-Reg10-1.pdf to access the relevant form.

13. AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

This manual is available for inspection, free of charge, at the company's offices during business hours and on the company's website.

14. UPDATES & REVISIONS

This manual will be reviewed and updated as necessary to reflect changes in legislation, company policies, or operational procedures. The latest version will be made available on the company's website and at its offices.
